

Brian P. Harris

Industry Experience:

Beginning as a student in the industry at age 4, Brian has over 30 years experience in all aspects of dance, gymnastics, cheerleading, and the performing arts.

Originally from Louisville, KY, Brian graduated from Georgetown College with a Bachelor's of Science in Business Administration and Communication. While attending Georgetown College he began United Talent as a class project and incorporated in 1998.

Prior to college, Brian trained at Dance Unlimited and Gymnastics by Mimi in Louisville, KY where he also became a gymnastics, dance, and cheer instructor, coach, and choreographer. As a student at Louisville Male High School, Brian was actively involved in football, show choir, and sang bass in the school's male quartet.

Following high school Brian was given the opportunity to travel the country with United Spirit Association (USA) and instruct middle school, high school, and college students. During this time he also traveled as a judge for Star Systems National Talent Competitions, Jam Brands (Jamfest), and Christian Cheerleaders of America (CCA) where he was also a frequent guest speaker and presenter for coach's conferences.

Brian resides in Georgetown, KY with his wife Kara and their two children Layne and Jack. He is very proud of the history and tradition of United Talent and looks forward to helping develop its various programs for many years to come.
